To this end, the company has implemented a "zero tolerance" policy that makes players aware that immediate and strong action will be taken against anyone found to be harassing players in the Pro Beach Volleyball League.

Any physical, verbal, sexual harassment or violence is not acceptable and may result in immediate expulsion from further league play. If reports of this kind of behaviour are received, the following steps are taken:

- First report: following investigation by the Beach Volleyball Coordinator - the player or team receives a verbal warning.
